DAYLIGHT SAVING IN EFFECT BEGINNING ON SUNDAY MORNING

BurgessIssuesProclamation Asking All Citizens to Co-operate

WILL PREVAIL ALL SUMMER

BURGESS PROCLAMATION

Whereas, The financial institutions, the industries, business interests and public schools of Charleroi propose to observe "Daylight Saving," beginning at 2 o'clock, a. m., Sunday April 24, 1921 and

Whereas, The Chamber of Commerce of Charleroi has gone on record as favoring this new time, and many requests having been made on the Burgess to issue a proclamation calling upon the people to generally observe this new arrangement, therefore,

Be it proclaimed, that at the time above designated, to wit: Sunday morning April 24, at 2 o'clock, all clocks and watches in the borough be moved forward one hour, to be so maintained until further notice, and in the interests of harmony and co-operation it is requested that all of our citizens in whatever calling they may be, comply with their request.

S. L. Woodward,
Burgess.

It is conceded that there will be a general compliance with the request of the Burgess with reference to daylight saving, which begins officially Sunday morning at 2 o'clock. The services in the various evangelincal churches will conform to the new time, as will be seen by their notices in another column; the public schools will go on the new schedule Monday morning; Superintendent Yost announced this morning that the schedule of the Pittsburg Railways company would conform to the time, as did Superintendent Callahan of the West Side lines.

All the local industries will follow the daylight saving plan, and business men, as well as our financial institutions will do the same thing. In fact, every activiity in Charleroi will do the same thing. So far the Pennsylvania Railroad company has not made any changes in its local trains to accommodate the new time so far as Charleroi is concerned, but our Chamber of Commerce is working with all its energy to have changes made in the running time of two trains, which, if made, will be quite an accommodation to many people who work in Charleroi and who live elsewhere.

Our neighboring towns of Monessen, Donora and Monongahela will all adopt the new time, which goes into effect in the morning, notices and proclamations having been made to that effect on Friday

Citizens, therefore are requested to watch their clocks and watches, and turn them ahead tonight before retiring, and be ready to be guided by the new time, as it will rule in the Pittsburg section from now until September. It is also well to remember that working time will begin one hour earlier on Monday morning, to be maintained throughout the summer.

LOCAL BOY TO APPEAR AT MOTOR SQUARE GARDEN

It is likely that Joe Larue, the local boxer, will apear at Motor Square Garden, Pittsburg, on Monday evening next. His opponent may be Johnny Ward of McKeesport, although Johnny McGarvey, matchmaker for the club, has been having considerable trouble in getting an opponent for the Charleroi boy, whose hitting powers are well known.

MONESSEN COUNCIL "FIRES" ITS CHIEF

A meeting of the Monessen council was held Friday evening, which ended in rather an abrupt manner. All members were present and routine business transacted, including a resolution empowering the borough to borrow some money to pay employes. When this business was out of the way one of the members made a motion to discharge Chief of Police Coover, and it was immediately seconded. The President started to put the question, when three of the members arose and protested. However, the President put the motion and declared it carried. The three protesting members left the meeting at once and this morning went to Greensburg to secure legal advice on the legality of the action taken. Some interesting developments are expected.

NEW FIRE OUTRAGES IN FAYETTE COUNTY

A series of fires which have occurred during the past couple of weeks in Fayette county is giving officials a great deal of concern in and about Uniontown. Two barns and a house were destroyed at Oliver, a mile from Uniontown, Thursday night, following closely on the heels of several fires in the vicinity of Normalville recently. G. R. King, aged 40, who the police believe is demented, is held in the Fayette county jail in connection with the Normalville fires. Three houses and two barns were destroyed in the Normalville section, and several other places were damaged by fires during the past two weeks.

Warren Charles Plasman

Warren Charles, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Plasman, died this morning at 3:45 o'clock at the home of his parents, Lock No. 4, aged two months. Funeral from the home on Monday at 2 o'clock p. m. Interment in Charleroi cemetery.

Hundreds of Miles of Navigation Now Available

With the completion of the dam in the Ohio river at Millwood, W. Va. about twenty miles above Gallipolis, the slackwater system on the Ohio river has been extended for a distance of 260 miles from Pittsburg. Before long the improvements will be extended to Point Pleasant, which will bring the Pittsburg district within distance of the improved waterway on the Kanawha river. Counting the Monongahela, with its improved system to Fairmont, there is now available for this territory improved waterways extending over a distance 400 miles, and with the addition of the Kanawha at no great distant date, this mileage will be considerably added to.

Not so many years ago, when the great coal market for the Monongahela valley was in the south and southwest, operators of Pittsburg and vicinity took long chances in getting their product to customers. The hazards of navigation were many and disastrous, and many a coal firm was compelled to suspend because of the immense losses on the Ohio and Mississippi. The irony of fate, however, decrees that the Ohio be improved over its most dangerous portions after the pioneers of the Monongahela valley coal industry have been gathered to their eternal reward. It would have been a great thing if the Ohio had been improved years ago, but better late than never, and with its improvement will come its greater utilization. There is much for that stream to do, and once it is made navigable all the year it will be ready for the task

MONESSEN FIRE EARLY THIS MORNING

A fire took place in Monessen at 6 o'clock this morning, at the jewelry store of I. Mayer, on Donner avenue, which entailed a loss of $5,000. The building a two story frame, in the business section of the town, and owned by H. Goldberg of McKeesport, was not badly damaged. Shortly after the fire started the firemen were on the job and had two streams of water playing on the building.

RAILROAD MAN MYSTERIOUSLY MURDERED ON PRICEDALE ROAD

Believed to Have Been Victim of Member of His Own Gang

WIFE DIED IN SAME MANNER

A myserious murder came to light Friday morning when the body of Russell Fields, better known as "Jack," was found in a field about a mile east of Monessen.

The body of the man was found on the farm of Jacob Symonds, on the Pricedale road, about 25 feet from the highway. An examination showed that the man had been shot through the heart. The body was brought to Monessen and taken to the morgue of John Check, where it was later identified by a relative as that of Russell Fields.

When found the body way lying face up in the feld, and within a short distance was found a full-loaded Colt revolver. A shell from an automatic revolver was also found, and it is supposed it was from the gun which fired the fatal bullet. The loaded gun belonged to Fields.

The deceased was formerly employed by the Monongahela Railway as a detective and worked out of Brownsville. He was laid off some time ago since which time he had been staying around Monessen. It is alleged that he had been connected with a gang at that place which did not bear a very good reputation. The last seen of Fields was Thursday evening, when he left a Monessen restaurant in company with several members of the supposed gang.

It is the supposition of officials that the "gang" was out on some depredation, when a quarrel arose and that Fields was killed by a member of his own gang.

Fields was about 28 years of age and came to this district from Cleveland, Ohio. A queer coincidence in connection with the murder is the fact that his wife, Sadie Plummer Fields, died from a bullet wound at Fayette City about four years ago. It was the supposition then that she had committed suicide, but some facts that have lately been learned, and that the husband met a similar fate, leads the authorities to believe that she also was murdered.

HIGH SCHOOL LITERARY CONTEST THIS AFTERNOON

More than 100 boys and girls representing 11 High schools are competing this afternoon in the third annual Washington County Literary contest, which is being held at Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, under the auspices of the college authorities and County Superintendent L. R. Crumrine. Charleroi High school is taking part in the contest, and hopes to make a good showing.

GREEK ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

A Greek, known as "Pete," who conducts a shoe shine stand on McKean avenue, just below the Hotel Charleroi, is under a cash bail bond of $100.00 to apear before Burgess Woodward on Monday evening next to answer a charge of running a disorderly house, the charge being made by the police. Pete, along with a young woman, was arrested in his place late Thursday night and both of them lodged in the lockup. On Friday the young woman was released on a payment of $10 fine and costs, and she was told to leave the town.

It is alleged by the police that Pete's place has been under suspicion for some time and that his arrest would have taken place some time ago had Constable Corey, in making an unexpected visit to the place one night, looked under a bed where a woman was in hiding. It is said that this shoe shine stand has been quite a rendezvous at night for men and women, and the local police say they are determined to break up the practice

NOT A COLLECTION AGENCY

Condemning any proposal to make the United States an international bill collector, the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. declares as follows:

"Probably the most unpopular man in any community is the professional bill collector—the embryo lawyer who specializes on the collection of claims of all sorts, good, bad and indifferent. The vocation of the bill collector is a perfectly legitimate one, and most of the claims he presents to alleged debtors are valid ones, but the fact remains, nevertheless, that no man welcomes to his door the man who makes himself the go-between in negotiations designed to adjust the business relations of debtors and creditors.

"What is true of individuals is also true of nations. The individual creditor can press his claim in a reasonable manner without losing the respect and good will of his debtor, but when he undertakes to collect the claims of others which have been assigned to him, he is entering upon a field of activity that is sure to lose him all the good he ever enjoyed. He is assuming a thankless job.

"That is exactly the position into which a lot of ill-advised Americans would get this nation if they could have their way. They want the United States to become the bill-collector of the Allied Nations in the matter of war obligations. They would have the American government take over the claims against Germany thus freeing other nations of the unpleasant task of collecting and making Germany a perpetual enemy of the United States. Some of those who propose that the United States thus sacrifice its good will for the benefit of various European governments are shrewd enough to propose that in the beginning only the claims of Belgium be taken over but of course, this would be only a first step and when once taken and a precedent established the other assignments would follow.

"The United States is not posing as a special friend of Germany. Neither is the country willing to be made a perpetual enemy of that country. We went into the war regretfully, prosecuted our part of it as vigorously as an inefficient administration would permit, and we are willing to bear our share of the cost including the burden of enmity that must naturally result. But we are not seeking an opportunity to increase our burden of either expense or enmity. The proper procedure is to let each creditor collect his own claims, the United States collecting only those debts due this nation in the regular course of our international relations.

"It might be pertinent to remark as a matter of friendly advice to a considerable number of pro-foreigners of American birth, that real Americans to goodness Americans are getting mighty tired of this unceasing effort to find some way to cringe this nation to make the supreme sacrifice of which Mr. Wilson was the original proponent. Everyone admires a persistent man, but it would be easier and pleasanter to admire the persistent propandists if they would exert themselves in behalf of America once in a while instead of thinking all the time about the welfare of Europe. We have troubles enough of our own."

SPECIAL REPORT of the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

We wish to advise you that the majority comment on your photoplay, "PASSION," reviewed by the National Board of Review, on September 23, 1921, was as follows: Entertainment value—Exceptional. Educational value—Exceptional. Artistic value. Dramatic interest of story—Intense. Acting—very fine. Photography—Good. Technical handling—Fine and constructive. Costuming—smart. Atmosphere quality, scenic setting—Superb. Historical value—Exceptional as interpretation. General comment, in the opinion of those present—"Passion" is by far the finest portrayal of the life and tragedy of Madame Du Barry ever placed on the screen. As a picture of the times, in its fidelity to the spirit of history, in its imagination and its dramatic vigor, and in the quality of its acting, it must be regarded as a masterpiece. It is a screen spectacle of the first magnitude, and a work of true photodramatic art. It should interest all lovers of the fine and unique in motion pictures. Less Expense, Less Trouble, Better Service

Franklin economy is enough in itself to justify your choosing a Franklin these days. New conditions have given a new significance to the familiar Franklin figures below.

Yet economy was never the only aim—nor the only good result, of the Franklin. The principles behind it were adopted and continued, for the superior service they gave in other ways, too.

Its light weight makes the Franklin easier and safer to drive as well as more economical of gasoline; flexibility makes it more comfortable as well as easier on tires; direct cooling frees it from the annoyance as well as from the cause of radiator troubles.

TO DECIDE WHO IS MOST POPULAR ELK

The Woodward Furniture company is conducting a somewhat novel contest, in connection with the coming Elks' minstrel show, which will give its first performance at the Palace theatre on Monday evening next. The Furniture Co., will endeavor to ascertain the most popular Elk taking part in the minstrels, and to that end is printing a coupon in The Mail, which those desiring of voting may cut out, write the name of their favorite minstrel Elk thereon and return it to the manager of the contest. When the returns are all in and the votes counted the winner will be announced. This voting contest will serve to add another interesting feature to the Elks' minstrels, for which the Woodward Furniture company deserves credit.

CHARLEROI BOY QUITE ILL FOLLOWING SUDDEN ATTACK

Charles E. Hott, one of Charleroi's most popular young men, is quite ill at his parents' home on McKean avenue. Several days ago the young man had a sudden attack of appendicitis on the street and fell in an unconscious condition. Friends carried him to the office of Dr. Enos and after medical aid had been administered he was taken to his home, where he has been confined ever since. Dr. Hill is in daily attendance, but does not think the young man's condition is serious as yet. Young Hott served in the World war, and owing to physical ailments contracted at that time has been practically an invalid ever since. This last attack will practically determine his future health.

Rsolutions of Respect

At a regular meeting of Charleroi Circle 303 Protected Home Circle held April 22 the following resolutions were adopted on the death of Brother Frederick Wolff who died March 10th and Brother Ira Nickeson who died April 5th.

Whereas, Almighty God in his supreme wisdom has seen fit to take to his heavenly home our worthy and loved Brothers and as we bow in humble submission to His divine will we pray He will comfort the loved ones left to mourn the loss.

Resolved, That we, the members of Charleroi Circle, No. 303, extend to the wife and family of the deceased brothers our sincere smypathy in this hour of great sorrow and ask that the good Lord may lighten the burden and throw sunshine in the paths which now seem so dark.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved families, a copy spread upon the record of our circle and published in the Charleroi Mail.

MANY citizens of this thriving, prosperous community recall, with visions of Dollars Saved, the great 6th Anniversary Sale of the Kaufmann & Baer Store last year. They remember how this sale took for its Key-Note: "Lower Prices," and how it persistently and successfully broke the back of the High-Priced market then existing.

THE K. & B. STORE always looks forward. It is never content to rest on its oars and float with the tide. MONTH OF RECORD-BREAKING BARGAINS

Mostly everyone is familiar with conditions that have existed during the past few months. Stores all over the country—great and small—withheld orders. Mills and factories faced shut-downs. They clamored for orders and there WERE NO ORDERS. That was the moment for the K. & B. store to STEP IN. With our eyes on this great SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY SALE with our hands full of ready CASH—we were ready and willing to place orders running into thousands upon thousands of Dollars. What was the result? Great mills competed with each other for our business. They were actually "hungry for the orders" and were willing to make every concession to attract our business. We closed purchases that will "open the eyes" of you all. They will be revealed on the Opening Day of this great Sale—MONDAY, May 2nd.

This is our summons for you to plan—to look over your needs—to post yourself on train schedules—and decide to come to Pittsburgh on the Opening Day of the Sale! You will SAVE as never before—your train fare will be earned many times over in the great savings that await you.

The K. & B. Store is prepared to open Charge Accounts for people living in this community

Remember the date—Monday the 2nd of May. Sale will continue "Every Day During May"
